7. Insurance: As the airline's liability is limited, personal and Baggage insurance is recommended.

8. Limitation of Liability

Domestic: Carriage wholly within Australia which is not part of an international journey, is subject to the provisions of the Civil Aviation (Carriers' Liability) Act 1959 (Cth) or complementary State legislation. Jetstar's liability in respect of the death or injury of any Passenger is limited to A$500,000, and in respect of baggage is limited to A$1,600 per Passenger for Checked Baggage, and A$160 per Passenger for Cabin Baggage. Jetstar is not liable for any loss the Passenger may suffer if Cabin Baggage is left on an aircraft or in the airport terminal.

International: If your journey is to or has a stop in another country, the Warsaw Convention or the Montreal Convention may apply. These Conventions govern and Death or bodily injury: Jetstar will not exclude or limit liability for damages not exceeding 100,000 SDRs (about AU$195,000). To the extent that damages may exceed 100,000 SDRs, Jetstar will rely on all available defences and limits of liability. Baggage: The Warsaw Convention limits liability for loss or damage to baggage to an amount expressed in gold francs. As these are no longer in use, in accordance with international practice the amount is US$20 (about AU$32) per kilo for Checked Baggage, and US$400 (about AU$640) for Cabin Baggage, unless Article 25 of the Convention applies. Where the Montreal Convention applies, Jetstar's liability is limited to a total of 1,000 SDRs (about AU$1,900) per passenger for both Checked and Cabin Baggage together, unless Article 22(5) of the Convention applies. Jetstar will only be liable for Cabin Baggage if at fault.

You must not include in your Checked Baggage fragile or perishable articles, money, jewellery, precious metals, negotiable papers, securities or other valuables (including but not limited to cameras and electronic equipment), business documents or samples. Jetstar may have no liability if you include such items in Checked Baggage, whether with or without the knowledge of the airline. Valuable personal items should be carried as Cabin Baggage.

9. Time limits: Any claim for loss of or damage to Checked Baggage or Cabin Baggage must be made in writing within the following timeframes:

International: 7 days if your checked baggage is lost, damaged or destroyed; 21 days in the case of a delay, from the date on which the baggage was placed at your disposal.

All other proceedings against the airline for damages must be commenced within two years.

10. Liability for breach of condition or warranty: Subject to clause 10, and to the extent permitted by law, Jetstar excludes all liability for any costs, expenses, losses or damages whatsoever that may arise in any way in connection with the carriage. If the Trade Practices Act 1974 (Australia) or any similar law implies a condition or warranty that cannot be excluded, the liability of Jetstar for a breach of the condition or warranty will be limited to either supplying the services again or paying the cost of having the services supplied again, as determined by Jetstar in its absolute discretion.
